

What did we see on our Springtime woodland walk?

The first thing I found is a snowdrop. It was white. Then we went to see the sheep and the ALPACAS. Then we went into the woods. We heard a bird sing. We saw a purple violet and lots of yellow primroses. We saw a bluebell. This is my favourite flower.

